

NESCOM CERTIFICATES

These certificate programs teach skills that are directly transferable to the workplace or as credits toward a degree at Husson University. Students who are currently enrolled in a degree program at Husson can add a certificate to their credentials as well. Hands-on classes offer high-level training in the most current industry practices and emphasize learning by doing. Instructors are respected professionals currently working in the field. You may choose from the following options of certificates at the New England School of Communications:

- 3D Modeling and Motion Design
- Advanced Live Sound Production
- Advanced Audio Production
- Digital and Social Media Marketing
- Graphic Design
- Marketing Communications
- Photography
- User Experience
