PATHWAYS CERTIFICATES IN SECONDARY EDUCATION (6-12)

Husson's Secondary Education Teacher Certification programs are designed to prepare individuals who already possess a Bachelor's degree to earn Grades 6-12 Pathways II Teaching Certification.

Throughout the coursework and classroom experiences, competence is developed as students learn about and apply best instructional practices for secondary level disciplines. This program incorporates both national standards and Maine's Teaching Standards. It also meets all requirements set forth by the Maine State Department of Education. Students completing the Secondary Teacher Certification program may choose to teach in middle level or high school classrooms, in either the private or public sector.
